

.1.d. Enhance graduate-level advising to support students throughout their professional advisors/coaches for first year and second-year students	In progress, but behind schedule	This strategy is one that is mentioned in the NACADA Consultant visit. Upon the creation of the Advising Task Force, the agenda items that will be addressed.	Depending on the recommendations of the task force, there could be a significant increase in professional advisors which means more monies would need to be made available for salaries.	Academic Affairs internal units.	The advising task force will begin meeting on a regular basis.	Joseph Ritchie
---	----------------------------------	---	--	----------------------------------	--	----------------

Goal / Strategy	Goal	Strategy	Status	Progress	Challenges	Collaboration	Next Steps	Investments	Submitter Name
-----------------	------	----------	--------	----------	------------	---------------	------------	-------------	----------------